TAG Announces Tech-Row at the Annual SHRM-Atlanta Conference

ATLANTA (May 16, 2010) – On October 18 & 19th, SHRM-Atlanta will hold the 20th Annual Conference and Exhibit, at Cobb Galleria. The 20th Annual SHRM-Atlanta HR Conference is a two-day conference held every year in the fall, featuring a high-profile keynote speaker and approximately 48 concurrent education sessions. Members from all over Georgia attend this conference for continuing education credits. Typical attendance is about 800-1,000 attendees. As a part of this year's trade show, the Technology Association of Georgia (TAG) will debut "tech-row," a series of booths representing TAG's companies.

SHRM-Atlanta, the Atlanta Chapter of the Society for Human Resource Management, was founded in 1965, and has current membership of over 2200 individuals. SHRM-Atlanta seeks to promote the professionalism of the Human Resources Management field by offering members a wide variety of professional development opportunities and a common forum in which to share ideas and experiences. Serving the Atlanta HR professional, SHRM-Atlanta provides opportunities for career development and community involvement both inside and outside of the Chapter. SHRM-Atlanta – Working for a Better Atlanta!

The Technology Association of Georgia (TAG) is a world-class membership organization, serving the mission to help Georgia's technology companies speak in a strong voice. Through its 26 societies (Special Interest Groups, or "SIGs"), the Association helps members connect with companies that use their services. To help facilitate and encourage this goal, TAG, along with its societies, host over 150+ events per year. This year, TAG brings additional value to its members and the technology community through its partnership with SHRM-Atlanta in the conference.
